

FIJI FEEDBACK !

- ☒ "I liked the fact I was included in the school as one of the main teachers, so I felt I had a bit more flexibility and the children had more respect for me". Fran Buchanan, Fiji, July 2008
- ☒ "I would definitely return, it's an amazing country. I will miss the children I taught. It's a great place to go for sun, nice people and the culture". Jayne Edwards, Fiji, June 2008
- ☒ "The best bits were meeting new people, getting to go to a variety of schools and generally having the freedom to do things!" Louise Wright, Fiji, June 2008
- ☒ "It was a great experience; it was the best thing I have ever done". Adam Broomfield, Fiji, July 2008
- ☒ "The best bit was being given freedom at the school and having flexibility in the classrooms to have fun with the kids". Tricia Pater, Fiji, July 2008
- ☒ "Highs and Lows – Transport to and from the local schools made coaching very easy. 'Fiji Time' made coaching quite hard!!" Luke Gupta, Fiji, August 2008
- ☒ "This project has been an unbelievable experience, one that I will remember for the rest of my life. The crew, people in the house and the people in the community have all been amazing". Luke Gupta, Fiji, August 2008
- ☒ "So many best bits; the trip to Nakavika village was amazing; I really enjoyed working with and teaching the students at a variety of schools and at a variety of standards. The house was amazing – I loved the pool and the food was always delicious!!" Miranda Madgin, Fiji, July 2008
